

TRADE COMMISSION IN ANOTHER ATTACK UPON PACKING INDUSTRIES

Reiteration of Charge They May Dominate Grocery Markets.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Washington, Oct. 16.—Reiteration of the claim that the five big packing companies of Chicago bid fair to dominate the wholesale grocery trade and already handle more than 200 foods unrelated to the meat packing industry, many of them directly competitive as meat substitutes, is made in part IV of the Federal Trade Commission's report on the industry, published today.

"The extent to which the packers should be permitted to enter unrelated food lines (even assuming legitimate competitive methods)," the report said, "is a matter which the public interest alone should determine."

Two questions, primarily economic, are involved:

"Does this widening of activity result in additional economies of production and distribution?"

"Does it result and will it continue to result to the public in lower prices and better quality of product and service?"

"A third question not here discussed relates to the ultimate effect of such vast and powerful organizations on the political and social fabric of American institutions."

Among Commodities.

Included in the list of commodities said to be falling under control of the "big five" are poultry and game, dairy products, lard and butter substitutes, canned and dried vegetables and fruit, canned, cured and frozen fish, cocoa, coffee, molasses and cane, corn and maple syrups. In addition, Armour & Co., one of the five, is said to be handling extensively soda fountain preparations and utensils.

The extent of packer control varies with the locality and commodity "and the dealer whose business is being absorbed," the report asserts.

"Owing to the maze and secrecy of the packers' methods of conducting much of his business," it adds, "exact

PRESENT RATES ON S. D. & E. WILL BE IN EFFECT ONE YEAR

Mayor Mark D. Smith this morning received a letter from R. Allan Stephens, secretary of the State Public Utilities Commission, relative to rates of the Sterling, Dixon & Eastern railway company, stating that the commission recently granted the petition of the company to continue its present rates as charged in both Dixon and Sterling city lines and the interurban line connecting these cities, for a period of one year after November 1, 1919, or until further order of commission.

Accompanying the communication is a copy of the petition in which the petitioner represents that the operating expenses are no less than on the date of the entry and that the company has failed to earn its bonded interest for a period of eight months ending August 31, 1919 by approximately $6,800.

Residents of Dixon and Sterling and patrons of the interurban will be obliged to pay the six cent fare on the city lines and the advanced rate on the interurban for at least another year.

TAXI DRIVERS ARE TAKING OUT PERMITS

Owners and drivers of taxi cabs are taking notice of the order of the city council following the meeting of Tuesday evening, and Mayor Smith signed several applications for licenses to operate taxi cabs within the city today and the necessary tags and badges are being distributed to those who have met the requirements.

Taxi cab drivers who are licensed by the city under the provisions of the new ordinance are obliged to wear a small round nickel plated badge in a conspicuous place, showing their license number. The letters and numbers are black and indented in the metal. The city license tags for taxi cabs are stamped metal plates, with the figures and letters in black on a blue background.

ROCHELLE STORE GUTTED BY FIRE

(Special to The Telegraph)
Rochelle, Oct. 16.—The Carney & Longmeyer clothing store in the central part of the business section of Rochelle, was gutted by fire of unknown origin early this morning, and it is announced that the insurance is but a very small part of the loss sustained. The fire was discovered at 3 o'clock this morning, at which time the interior of the store room was largely in flames, and it was after 7 o'clock before the blaze was extinguished. Practically everything in the store room and basement above and the building were considerably damaged.

NEW TIME CARD ON NORTHWESTERN ROAD

A new time card, making slight changes in the scheduled time of two trains at Dixon, is in effect on the Northwestern railroad. Henceforth train No. 8, westbound, will arrive in Dixon at 2:22 a. m. instead of 2:16 a. m., and train No. 18, east bound, will leave this city at 11:03 a. m. instead of 11:02 a. m.

266 Army Nurses Died in Service

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Washington, Oct. 16.—That army nurses who served overseas with the American forces during the war had their share of service and suffering is shown in the final report on the activities corps, made by Miss Julia C. Stimson, acting director who headed the army nursing service abroad. Between May 8, 1917, and May 31, 1919, 10,245 nurses out of a total of 21,480 enlisted for the war saw service overseas. Three were wounded in action and 266 died while on duty.

The real work of the American women commenced July 18, 1918, with their own army when the first German attack was stemmed and the great victorious allied offensive started.

"From July 18 to November 11, the amount of work done was such that no praise would be great enough," Miss Stimson said. "It was not at all uncommon for nurses to work 14 to 18 hours a day for weeks at a time, and some hospitals with only seventy or eighty nurses cared for 2,100 patients."

LOUIS SWIFT IN STATEMENT CALLS CHARGES ABSURD

Head of Packing Concern Answers Federal Trade Body.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Chicago, Oct. 16.—Louis F. Swift, president of Swift & Co., today issued a statement denying the charges that the five big packers by enlarging the scope of their business threaten to control the wholesale grocery trade of the country which are contained in the latest report of the federal trade commission. Mr. Swift's statement reads in part:

"The packing industry is again put in a wrong light by the latest installment of the series of attempts on the part of the Federal Trade Commission to scare the American people into the belief that the large packers are getting control of the food supply of the country."

"In the first place the packers do not control anything. Swift & Co. is in active competition with all other packers in the purchase and sale of every product bought and sold."

"The charge that the five packers have divided the field, each specializing on certain lines, is absurd."

3 Per Cent Groceries

"There is no ground for the claim that the large packers bid fair to dominate the wholesale grocery trade. Swift & Company's sales of grocery products amount to only a little over one per cent of the total wholesale grocery business. The five large packers together handle not to exceed three per cent."

"The trade commission's figures showing the percentage of poultry, butter and eggs handled by the large packers are greatly exaggerated."

"We have issued figures based on Department of Justice reports showing that Swift & Co. handles only about six per cent of the total quantity of these products sold in the United States."

"There is no combination or agreement with other packers in the handling of these products or to divide territory in their purchase or sale."

"I believe that the public is beginning to learn that it cannot rely on the prejudiced and sensational charges made by the Federal Trade Commission and that this commission is doing the country a positive injury by stirring up discontent and misunderstanding."

DIXONITES MAY GO TO CLINTON COURSE

Dixon musicians are exhibiting great interest in the series of four recitals to be given at the Clinton Auditorium during the winter and an effort is now being made to secure enough pledges from the music-lovers of this city to secure special trains to and from Clinton on the nights of the concerts. A special price for season tickets, to course, has been made to Dixonites, and all who wish to take advantage of the opportunity to hear the following recitals are asked to sign up between 2 and 6 p. m. Saturday at the Y. M. C. A. or the Kennedy Music Co. The recitals are to be Oct. 29—Galli Curci.

REPORT OF RADICALS RUNNING BIG STRIKE CHARACTERIZED 'BUNK'

Head Chicago Labor Body to Demand Publication of All Arrested.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Chicago, Oct. 16.—John Fitzpatrick, president of the Chicago Federation of Labor said today that he would demand of the war department the publication of the name of every alleged radical member of the federation suspected of fomenting disorder in connection with the steel strike.

"I have been told that Gen. Wood has said there is not a scrap of evidence to connect any of the men arrested at Gary, Ind., with any plot of radicals," said Mr. Fitzpatrick. "The reports that radicals are running the strike are absolutely untrue. Ninety-five per cent of all those arrested are men who were discharged from the steel mills because of their activities in the union. I believe that all this talk of radical plots to overturn civil government and establish soviet is bunk."

Ask Baker to Act

It was reported today that Secretary Baker has been asked by organized labor to send a personal representative to Gary to investigate the charges made against radicals.

Officials of the steel mills at Gary said today that 168 of the 170 rollers, the highest skilled workmen employed in the steel industry who earn from $25 to $36 a day under normal conditions, have returned to work along with their helpers.

The executives of the plants expressed the belief that the strike is practically over as the companies have no intention of attempting to increase their output at present.

They say that each mill is building up a new organization and that in several departments there are more men applying for work than can be used. Union labor leaders deny the accuracy of these assertions.

PETROGRAD NEAR FALL; REDS FACE CERTAIN DEFEAT

BULLETIN.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
London, Oct. 16.—A general retreat by the bolshevik before the armies of Admiral Kolchak in western Siberia is announced in a wireless message from the Kolchak government at Omsk, dated Oct. 12.

The despatch reads:
"The bolshevik are retreating along the whole line. They are deporting the entire population between the ages of 16 and 50 and are likewise removing the cattle."

By Associated Press Leased Wire

London, Oct. 16.—Forced back by the onslaught of enemies on four fronts, the armies of the soviet government of Russia appear to be facing a period pregnant with disaster. General Denikin's cossacks from the south, Polish forces from the west, northwestern Russian legions on the northwest, and northern Russian troops from the north, have during the last few days forged ahead until it seems the bolshevik armies are between the upper and nether millstones.

Petrograd is doomed to capture, in the opinion of observers. Gen. Yudenitch being at Gatchina, only 25 miles south of the former Russian capital. This morning's newspapers conspicuously feature reports of successes by General Yudenitch and Denikin and the presumed impending collapse of the soviet government of Russia. Editorial comment while recalling frequent past predictions of the fall of bolshevism which did not materialize, think the present position is more menacing for the soviet government than it has been at any previous time.

AWARDED DAMAGES AGAINST RAILROAD ADMINISTRATOR HERE

John Zaleski, a minor, who was injured some time ago when struck by a Burlington train in the yards at Rochelle, has been granted damages in the amount of $500 in the Lee county circuit court. The suit was brought against Walker D. Hines, United States railway administrator, as the defendant. Gardner & Gardner of Rochelle represented the complainant and Dixon & Dixon appeared for the defense.

WORK RESUMED ON LINCOLN HIGHWAY

Work on the concrete pavement of the Lincoln Highway between this city and Sterling, which was at a standstill for several days because of the non-arrival of gravel, has again been resumed, a consignment of several cars of the needed material having been received yesterday. Contractor Heaps hopes to maintain daily arrival of gravel in order that no further delays may be experienced in the work.

FORMER DIXON MAN DROPPED DEAD IN CITY

The sad news of the sudden death of Colon Etinger, brother of Wallace Etinger of Palmyra, was received by relatives here late last night. Mr. Etinger dropped dead when he stepped off a street car in Chicago at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The body will be sent to Morrison this evening where funeral services will be conducted and burial will be made tomorrow afternoon.

The deceased was born in Huntley, Ill., September 6, 1886, where his twin brother died at the age of three years. He made his home in Sterling for several years and was married there about 12 years ago. About eight years ago he removed to Chicago where he has since made his home. For some time he had been in the employ of the government in Chicago.

Surviving are his wife, his mother, Mrs. Elmira Etinger of Palmyra, five brothers: Wallace, of Palmyra; Elmer, of Portland, Ore.; Richard and Earl of Chicago, and Jesse of Palmyra, and two sisters, Mrs. Belle Murray of Des Moines, Iowa, and Mrs. Bert Selover of Amboy.

TIME DRAWING NEAR FOR GERMANY TO PAY

Three Allied Countries Have Ratified Pact; Necessary.

By Associated Press Leased Wire

Washington, Oct. 16.—Directly the peace treaty comes into force through exchange of ratification by three of the allied and associated powers and Germany many of its clauses will become effective. Chief among these is that requiring Germany to issue an hundred billion marks for bonds for the reparation of devastated territories.

Ratification by Great Britain, France, Italy and Germany was expected to be completed this week by the deposit of the deposit of the process verbal at Paris, but it was announced yesterday that this final act to bring the treaty into force had been postponed. No explanation was given.

Other provisions of the treaty which will become effective immediately with the deposit of the process verbal require:

Destruction of unfinished German surface warships.

Disarmament of auxiliary ships of war, four of which are in neutral ports and 28 in German ports.

Formal surrender of German surface warships interned in allied and neutral ports and now in charge of German caretakers.

Delivery of all German military and naval aviation material, including dirigibles, except 100 unarmed seaplanes to be retained as a part of the German mine-sweeping force.

Destruction of the armament of all military forces situated within fifty kilometers of the frontier.

STOLEN CAR WHICH POLICE CHASED IS FOUND NEAR ASHTON

It was rumored here today that the Ford car stolen from Rochelle Tuesday night, was found abandoned south of Ashton yesterday. The driver had run until the gasoline supply was exhausted, then abandoned the machine. A returned soldier, who has been in Rochelle for several days, coming from Michigan with a stolen car, is said to be suspected of the theft.

The stranger was apprehended at Rochelle with a car stolen from Michigan. The owner came on and refused to prosecute the thief, being content to have the car returned. Being a returned soldier, he was honored at the home coming celebration a few days ago and at that time is said to have told some of his acquaintances that he was going to leave Rochelle in a car.

Union Organizers Driven From County

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Huntington, W. Va., Oct. 16.—The fifty union organizers who went into Logan county yesterday in an attempt to unionize coal miners of the Guyan Valley and who claim they were forced to leave that region by several hundred "armed men" reported their case today to district headquarters of the United Mine Workers of America at Charleston.

The organizers said the armed force was made up of company officials, county officers and miners. They denied assertions of Don Chafin, Logan county clerk, that when searched by deputies at Logan, 26 pistols were found on members of the party.

Asks Allies Make Fiume a Free Port

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Paris, Oct. 16.—(Havas)—Capt. Gabriele D'Annunzio whose forces now are holding the city of Fiume, has sent a message to Premier Clemenceau asking that the latter take the initiative in obtaining a decision from the allied governments making Fiume a free port.

Capt. D'Annunzio says he has drafted a manifesto inviting Serbians and Italians to recognize mutual national rights. The manifesto, which will be delivered by airplane will call upon the two nations to "maintain the bonds of brotherhood, which have been sealed by blood."

Dr. S. O. Domer, of Polo, and Frank Domer, of Iowa, will attend the wrestling match here tonight in which the former's son, Floyd Domer, takes part.

ANOTHER ARREST IN CAMP GRANT PLOT IS EXPECTED DURING DAY

Authorities Are Looking for Cache of Nitro- Glycerine There.

By Associated Press Leased Wire

Camp Grant, Ill., Oct. 16.—Arrest of a fourth man believed to be involved in a conspiracy to blow the safe in the finance section of the camp quarter-master's department at Camp Grant is expected this afternoon, according to officers working on the case today.

James Novack, Daniel Hayes and Jas. Dwyer, suspected of being in the plot, are held at the Winnebago county jail while search for a cache of nitroglycerine, which it is reported they carried in to camp in large quantities is being made.

The three men who were employed at the camp as watchmen were taken into custody yesterday afternoon. Novack, according to Chicago detectives, planned the camp scheme. He is wanted in Chicago as a fugitive under a charge of safe blowing.

Camp authorities declared today that at no time has there been more than $25,000 kept in the safe overnight and say the alleged yeggmen would have had little chance of obtaining it and escaping from camp, as the offices are under a heavy guard of veteran soldiers.

GARY CALLED HOT BED OF ANARCHY BY U. S. GENERAL

By Associated Press Leased Wire

Gary, Ind., Oct. 16.—Investigation of radical bomb and anti-government plots and surveillance of suspected reds continued today in Gary, where army intelligence officers and federal operatives already have uncovered a number of alleged plots and arrested a score or more agitators. Seven men taken in a series of raids Tuesday night are held on deportation warrants, it was stated today, and three others remain in custody. No arrests were reported last night.

An official report by Col. W. S. Mapes, commanding the federal troops sent here when the situation growing out of the steel strike got beyond the power of the state authorities, presenting what was said to be documentary evidence of the connection of radical leaders with the steel strike in Gary and elsewhere today was in the hands of Maj. Gen. Leonard Wood, commander of the Central Army Department. Gen. Wood last night declared Gary "is a hot bed of anarchy."

Is Sensational Report.

The evidence submitted in the report was said to be of a sensational nature. It also is said to contain proof of the alleged radical plot to capture the civil government of Gary and other steel cities in the strike area.

No official announcement regarding the report has been made but it was stated it might be made public later.

Wilson's Discomfort is Greatly Relieved

By Associated Press Leased Wire

Washington, Oct. 16.—President Wilson, relieved from the glandular swelling, which he suffered for two days, had a good night's rest last night, said the bulletin issued today by his physicians.

The bulletin follows:

"The White House, 11:55 a. m., Oct. 16, 1919.

"The discomfort which the president suffered for two days has been relieved to a very great extent. He had a good night. His temperature, pulse, respiration and kidney function continue normal."

Dr. Grayson said informally that the president was cheerful and that he was enjoying having Mrs. Wilson read to him.

The White House has not considered cancelling the visit of the king and queen of the Belgians on Oct. 24, Dr. Grayson indicated. He said that the visit was still some time off and that the situation would be met when the time came.

THINK ENEMY CAUSE OF WORKMAN'S DEATH

Rochford, Oct. 16.—An investigation is under way as a result of a suspicion that the rope which broke yesterday and caused the death of Max Sutcliffe, a window cleaner at work on the Ashton building, had been tampered with by an enemy of the victim.

The rope which held the workman fast to the building bears every indication of being able to stand almost any test of weight. It was guaranteed to bear a ton's weight and shows no signs of any flaw at the point where the strands parted.

That acid was applied to the rope is the theory on which the investigation is proceeding.

It is known that the dead man had quarreled with a certain person a few days since and this suspect is now under surveillance. No effort will be spared in determining whether there is a reasonable ground for this suspicion.

DEER'S BODY IN RIVER.

The body of a dead buck deer was found floating in the waters of Rock river at Grand Detour a few days ago. It is believed that the animal was one of a herd on the McMillan McCormick farm, a few of which are said to have been shot this season. The horns were removed from the animal by the finder at Grand Detour and the carcass allowed to float on down stream.

"There are some things better than gold," he explained, adding that he was hurt to see so many ministers dropping their church work for the better paying business world.

MEMORIAL ASSN. TO HOLD BAZAAR TO RAISE FINANCE

Every Citizen of Dixon Expected to Help in This Project.

The people of Dixon will be asked next week to purchase season tickets to the bazaar to be given by the Dixon Memorial Ass'n. Nov. 1 to 8, and the ladies who will make the canvass anticipate liberal patronage, for the cost of the tickets will be small and the object is one which every man, woman and child in Dixon should have a primary interest.

The Dixon Memorial Ass'n., made up of men and women of this city who are pledged to keep Memorial Day sacred, to see that the graves of deceased soldiers and sailors in Oakwood are kept in the best of condition and to arrange the annual celebration of Decoration Day, is taking this means of raising the necessary money to carry on the work.

The work is all done gratuitously, but it requires money to purchase flags, markers, wreaths, etc. and to keep the markers painted and fresh. Incidentally the cost of securing speaker, music, flowers and speakers' stand for the annual Decoration Day celebration is considerable and by means of a bazaar, in which all may find something of interest and entertainment, the association officers expect to be able to raise the necessary funds without much trouble.

It is probable that the more prominent fraternal organizations in the city will be asked to take charge of the bazaar on the various evenings, thus adding to the assurances of its success.

Senate Investigation of Steel Strike Will End Early Next Week

By Associated Press Leased Wire

Washington, Oct. 16.—Investigation of the steel strike by the senate labor committee will be closed next week with the examination of witnesses on the activities of radicals in the strike.

In making this announcement today, Chairman Kenyon said the decision to close the inquiry next week was reached because of the committee's desire to report to the senate and expedite consideration of legislation for the Americanization of foreign born residents of the United States. This legislation will be considered by the committee next Wednesday.

Final witnesses in the steel strike will be heard Monday and Tuesday. Chairman Kenyon said, and the committee then will draft its report. Several senators had desired to visit other strike districts, but it was decided that the information obtained at Pittsburgh and in Washington is sufficient.

Further Plans for Miners' Strike Nov. 1

By Associated Press Leased Wire

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 16.—Plans for a strike of bituminous coal miners of the country on November 1, were continued today at international headquarters of the United Mine Workers of America here, the officials proceeding on the assumption that nothing would come of the conference in Washington called by Secretary of Labor William B. Wilson in an effort to avert the threatened walkout.

The official strike call, issued by acting president John L. Lewis, was sent out yesterday afternoon to the more than 4,000 local unions and plans for making the strike effective are taking form at headquarters.

MAYNARD'S RECORD FLIGHT WAS STOPPED BY ACCIDENT TODAY

"Flying Parson's" Machine Broke Crank Shaft Near Wahoo.

BULLETIN.

By Associated Press Leased Wire

Omaha, Neb., Oct. 16.—Lieut. Belvin W. Maynard, flying from St. Paul, Neb., broke a crank shaft and was forced to make a landing in a corn field four miles north of Wahoo, Neb., forty miles west of this city shortly before noon today. The landing was effected without difficulty and without injury to the pilot or his observer, W. C. Kilen.

This information was received at Ak-Sar-Ben Field by Lieut. H. R. Wells, control station officer, who immediately sent a truck-load of soldiers from Fort Omaha to guard the plane. Lieut. Maynard left St. Paul, Neb., for Omaha at 11:17 this morning.

According to the report received from Lieut. Maynard it will be impossible for him to repair the damaged motor and he requested Lieut. Wells, control officer at Ak-Sar-Ben Field to seek permission from the war department to transfer the motor from the Martin-Bombing plane which was piloted by Capt. Roy N. Francis and which was wrecked at Yutan, Neb., 30 miles west of this city, Tuesday, while making a forced landing, to his plane.

Wahoo is but 10 miles west of Yutan and the motor from the Martin machine can be transported overland, providing permission is given for the transfer. It will take at least two days to transfer the motors of the two machines, which is the only means whereby Lieut. Maynard can continue in the race.

"I am still in the race," stated Lieut. Maynard when he informed Lieut. Wells of the accident.

TRADE COMMISSION ATTACKS PACKERS

statistics on many of these commodities are not available for the country as a whole, which will show just how far the packer's control has reached.

"Many companies manufacturing or handling these commodities are controlled by packer interests so that of which is disclosed by the names under which they operate and even a thorough-going examination may fail to uncover the packer connection in every case."

Handled Much Poultry.

Four of the packers, Swift, Wilson, Armour and Cudahy, the report states, through their subsidiaries and not including family controlled companies, handled in 1918, 49.5 per cent of the estimated total of shipped dressed poultry and 33 per cent of shipped eggs.

The same four handled 49 per cent of all factory-made cheese in 1918, the report says, and adds:

"That the big five are in a position to control 75 to 80 per cent of the cheese of the state (Wisconsin) is generally conceded."

Libby, McNeill & Libby, a Swift concern, alone handled 10.4 per cent of all evaporated and condensed milk in 1918, according to the report.

In Cereal Products.

The Armour Grain Co., a factor in the cereal and breakfast food business, reported surplus undivided profits for the year 1917 of $5,426,830 after deducting a 75 per cent dividend on capital stock, the report says, adding:

"The year's net earnings amounted to $2,068,912, or 290 per cent on the capital stock and 6 per cent on the net worth of the company including capital, surplus and undivided profits as reported at the close of the fiscal year 1916."

"Production of land compounds and substitutes by the five packers during the first six months of 1917 was placed at $9.4 per cent of the total, and Oreo Margarine at 51 per cent."

Complete figures to show the packer interest in canned goods, such as fruits and fish, were not available, the report says, but the business of the "big five" was shown to be large and growing. The Libby Company's canned goods sales alone showed a 225 per cent increase in 1918 over 1915. Libby sales of canned salmon increased from 4.6 per cent of the world pack in 1915 to 9.7 per cent in 1918, the report states.

"So complete has become the control, especially by Libby, McNeill & Libby over the pineapple supply," the report reads, "that one of the largest whole sale grocers in the country was unable in the summer of 1918 to secure any supply whatever."

There is sufficient evidence, the report continues, that the "big five" are dividing the field among themselves.

"If Armour's grocery specialties are largely concerned along such lines as rice, cereals, certain kinds of canned goods and cheese, and each of the other of the five great packers concentrates his specialties along a few well chosen lines the profitable fields become pretty well covered and pretty well ruled by the five."

Are Large Speculators.

The report declares the meat packers "are large speculators" and that their control of capital and credit enables them to buy in such a way as to resell "upon a market in which their purchases have forced up the price. It also asserts the packers have extraordinary buying and marketing power due to certain advantages, perhaps not always unlawful but certainly often unjustifiable."

Among these advantages are enumerated packer control of 44.8 per cent of all cold storage facilities. Their refrigerator car service, the "highly favorable rules" obtained by the packers for mixed carloads of fresh meats and packing house products, permitting them to include a great variety of goods "foreign to their slaughtering business" with resulting discriminations not alone in service, but also in rates.

"Until the packers are shorn of the transportation advantages granted them by the carriers," the report says, "there is no way of measuring their true industrial efficiency."

Says His Prescription

Has Powerful Influence

Over Rheumatism

Discoverer Tells Druggists Not to Take a Cent of Anyone's Money Unless Allenhu Company Banishes All Rheumatic Pains and Twinges.

Mr. James H. Allen suffered for years with rheumatism. Many times the terrible disease left him helpless and unable to work.

He finally decided, after years of ceaseless study, that no one can be free from rheumatism until the accumulated impurities, commonly called uric acid deposits, were dissolved in the joints and muscles and expelled from the body.

With this idea in mind he consulted physicians, made experiments, and finally compounded a prescription that quickly and completely banished every sign and symptom of rheumatism from his system.

He freely gave his discovery to others who took it, with what might be called marvelous success. After years of urging decided to let sufferers everywhere know about his discovery through the newspapers. Your druggist has been appointed agent for Allenhu in this vicinity with the understanding that he will freely return the purchase money to all who state they received no benefit.

COMPLICATIONS.

CHAPTER C.

Someway I seemed much older than Rose, though really there was only a few months difference in our ages. I suppose it was being married, having a home of my own, etc. So I tried to explain to her that it would be impossible for her to see anything of Walter Kemp because of Everett's restrictions.

"There are other places than your house. We can lunch with him or go to a matinee, can't we? I am just dying to know him better."

"I thought Barrett Edmonds—"

"Barrett is all right, he's a dear! But that Mr. Kemp is the most fascinating man I ever met. Probably that's the reason Mr. Graham objects to him. He is so much older, and so is jealous."

I came very near saying I wished Everett were jealous of me. He had forbidden me to do things, but I never had imagined it because of love or jealousy. I had in some way offended his amour propre, that was all. But I didn't say anything of this to Rose. I liked her to think that my handsome, distinguished husband was jealous of me. It was like most women—jealousy was to me a sign of love. I was so jealous myself that I could not conceive of a great love where faith and trust were the component parts, and where jealousy had no place.

"What in the world are you thinking about, Sandra? You haven't spoken for five minutes," Rose interrupted my thoughts.

"Oh, that some people never are jealous!"

"Everybody is jealous when they care a lot for anyone," Rose retorted with all the erudition of twenty.

"Yes, I guess they are—if they care."

Fate played into Rose's hands. The very next day we stopped for some soda—and who should follow us in but Walter Kemp. He insisted upon treating us, and sat beside us as we all three drank what we had ordered.

Rose acted disgracefully—yet, before I was married I would not have thought so perhaps. She flirted abominably, and made what my brothers called "goo-goo eyes" at him the whole blessed time. I could see that he was attracted, and my jealous nature flared up again. I knew I could not be with Walter Kemp, that I could not entertain him in my home, yet I felt twinges of jealousy as I saw him turn to Rose, laugh and joke with her, admiration on his face.

Rose was bright. She often used slangy expressions, but she used them in such a way they were not offensive. And no one could deny she was pretty. She had style, too, and dressed well. I was really proud of her as a guest, yet I did not want my men friends to show her more attention than they did me.

A lady I knew came into the store—a friend of Everett's. I turned to respond to her greeting, so leaving Rose and Mr. Kemp for a moment. When I turned back to them, I saw I had interrupted something Rose was saying which she did not want me to hear, for she blushed violently. I pretended not to notice, and we soon left.

As we reached the street, and Thomas drove the car up to the curb for us, I overheard Walter Kemp say: "Don't forget," and Rose smiled her answer.

About 3 o'clock that same afternoon I saw Rose going downstairs dressed for the street, and looking lovely. We were going out that evening. Everett had telephoned that he had theater tickets, and I had proposed we lie down a little while, as we had shopped all the morning and I was rather tired. Some way since my accident I tired easily.

"Why Rose, where are you going?" I asked, surprised.

"Ask me no questions, I'll tell you no lies," she responded blithely.

"Do tell me! Do you want me to go with you? Shall I order the car for you?"

"No, to both! There's a taxi at the door for me, and I am going to tea with Walter Kemp. I didn't tell him to ask you, too. I thought after what you had said—about Mr. Graham not liking him, it was better to go without you. I'll be back in time to dress for dinner."

I looked from the window, and as she tripped down the steps to the waiting taxi hot tears filled my eyes. "I was always the one left," I thought as I brushed them away.

AMUSEMENTS

"OH, LADY, LADY."

F. Ray Comstock and William Elliott, two of the youngest producers in the theatrical world, have made for themselves names well to be envied by producers twice their years. It was done thru their branching out into a new type of smart clean musical comedy, and the venture has brought them a fortune in less than five years.

Their first venture was "Nobody Home," followed by "Very Good Eddie," "Go To It," and their fifth and latest offering "Oh, Lady, Lady," which will be presented at the Dixon opera house on Wednesday, October 22nd.

"Oh, Lady, Lady" holds the distinction of having run one year in New York, eight months in Chicago, four months in Boston and four months in Philadelphia.

"Oh, Lady, Lady" has everything that makes for success in musical comedy—a splendid book by Guy Bolton and P. G. Wodehouse, and a musical score with sixteen hits by Jerome Kern.

one of the most popular composers of the present day.

The cast of "Oh, Lady, Lady" will include Miss Pauline Berri in the role of the young bride; Mr. William Elliott in the leading male role; Miss Betty Blythe as Fainting Fanny Welch; Eugene McGregor as Spike Hudgins and a number of other well known stars among them Joseph McCallion, Florice Auburn, Walter Gray, Marie Hahn, Thomas C. Leary, Madeline Gray and a large chorus.

A HONOLULU HONEYMOON.

Mr. Henry Ahiena, who heads the native Hawaiian troupe with the super musical comedy, "A Honolulu Honeymoon" showing at Dixon opera house tomorrow night, is a Hawaiian Historian of no mean ability.

He is the author of the book "Ancient and Modern Dances of Hawaii" which is the accepted authority on everything pertaining to Hawaiian Dances.

The famous Hula Dance keeps the Hawaiian in communal imagination, in living touch with the nations legendary past.

Princess Lei Momi performs a wonderful Hula Dance in "A Honolulu Honeymoon," which includes every specie of composition in the whole range of the Hawaiian musical and sensational dances.

This dance includes the famous Hula mele or the language of passion. It illustrates the lover pouring into the ears of his inamorata the story of his undying love.

Other numbers in this wonderful dance inspiration includes, "Love at Play," "Outspreads the Dawn," "Love Return to the Refuge I Offer," "First Blush of Maidenhood," and other beautiful conceptions.

"A Honolulu Honeymoon" comes to the opera house tomorrow night as the colossal musical comedy offering of the season.

Special new scenery made by the Du Barre Studios of Chicago after original sketches by Mr. Victor Kilauni the famous Hawaiian landscape artist, gorgeous costumes and surprising electrical and mechanical effects, including the masterpiece of stage craft the volcano of Kilauea in eruption.

JUBILEE ANNIVERSARY—

Mrs. Otto Beier entertained the members of the Ladies' Aid society of St. Paul's Lutheran church last evening at her home on Lincoln Way. The occasion was the jubilee anniversary of the founding of the aid society in Dixon. One of the charter members of the society was present, Mrs. Jonathan Rhodes, who gave an interesting talk of the work done by the society in its early labors. Other reminiscences by some of the older members were given by Mrs. C. S. Ruff and Mrs. Simon Lowery. Miss Hiller gave several readings which were much appreciated by the ladies. Mrs. A. R. Powell read a clipping telling of the labors of an aid society. Miss Nellie Powell read an original poem which elicited much praise from all present. During the evening Master Paul Beier gave several selections on the Victrola. At the conclusion of the program the hostess served delicious refreshments. She was assisted by Mrs. Arthur Beier of Sterling.

There were thirty-six present at last evening's program.

Following is the original poem read by Miss Powell:

LADIES' AID JUBILEE

Tonight we come with merry mien
To keep a jubilee,
The occasion, that of fifty years
Ladies Aid Society.

The Ladies Aid, as plainly seen,
Is everybody's friend;
Of the good they do in every way
There's never any end.

They help the parson and his wife,
They help the Council too;
They help the sick and poor and blind,
And see finances through.

They're wonders in domestic lines—
Their cooking is an art;
And when refreshments must be served
They always do their part.

In fact, when no one else will do,
Just call the Ladies Aid,
They'll fill the bill and do it well,
Your fortune will be made.

For fifty years, or thereabouts,
They've labored long and hard,
So let's take off our hats to them—
They're everybody's pard.

They sew for orphans, mend and darn,
They cook and bake and brew;
They give the church its housecleaning,
That's part of what they do.

Alas, alack! I can not tell Their virtues every one,
'Twould take a year and maybe more,
And then I'd not be done.

So I'll not try to eulogize,
But only wish God speed
To this our noble Ladies' Aid—
We love you much indeed.

And may another fifty years
Be added to the score
Of benefactions you've performed,
As in the days of yore.

And may you grow to twice your size
And prosper very much;
And may your treasury be full
For any needy touch.

Long live the Ladies Aid!
We pray this jubilee
May warm your hearts and show you
How much we think of thee.

GIVEN CHARIVARI—

A genuine old-fashioned charivari was given Mr. and Mrs. Joseph C. Crawford, whose wedding was recently announced.

nounced, at their home in the country, on Tuesday evening. Forty or fifty friends gathered, with horns, bells and all the rest of the justly famed noise makers, and gave them an uproarious serenade and welcome to the community. To still the din Mr. and Mrs. Crawford invited them in and served ice cream, cake, and cigars.

SPECIAL MUSIC AT INSTITUTE—

With a recorded attendance of considerably over three hundred, the Lee County Teachers' Institute, held here this week, is bringing to the teachers of Lee County much that is enjoyable. Aside from the regular program furnished by the institute instructors, Dixon musicians have rendered enjoyable numbers throughout the sessions. Mrs. Ballou sang a delightful vocal number on Tuesday, Elmer Rice and Mrs. Allan Read sang on Wednesday and were greatly appreciated, and on Thursday Mesdames Ballou and Read appeared in a harmonious duet. An impromptu quartette, composed of Mesdames Ballou and Read and Clinton Fahrney and Elmer Rice, also furnished enjoyable numbers on Thursday. That the teachers should do all they can to assist in the campaign for the purpose of securing the Roosevelt memorial fund, was presented in a talk by Harry L. Fordham on Thursday afternoon.

TO PROPHETSTOWN—

Mrs. M. B. Thompson, of Danville, Ill., and Mrs. H. A. Stevens, of Corpus Christi, Texas, have added their visit here at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Thompson and left Wednesday for Prophetstown, where they will visit for a time with relatives before returning to their homes.

W. C. O. F. CARD PARTY—

A card party is to be given this evening at Knights of Columbus hall by the Woman's Catholic Order of Foresters. Refreshments will be served after the games. An enjoyable evening is assured all who come and everyone is invited.

VISIT IN CHICAGO—

Mrs. Frank Bovey and son, John, of North Ottawa avenue, left last evening for Chicago where they will visit with Mrs. Bovey's parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Lawson. They expect to return Sunday.

WITH DIXON RELATIVES—

Mrs. Mary Ross, of Stafford, Kas., is spending the week visiting friends and relatives. She is being entertained at the Squire Johnson and Mrs. Oliver Killian homes.

HALLOWEEN PENNY CARNIVAL—

A Halloween penny carnival will be given by the Epworth League in the basement of the Methodist church Friday evening. Everyone is invited to attend. A merry evening is assured.

EASTERN STAR MEETING—

Dorothy Chapter, O. E. S., will hold a regular meeting, with work, at Masonic hall on Friday evening.

WITH DAUGHTER—

Mrs. Mary Patterson is spending the day at the home of her daughter, Mrs. H. B. Huyett.

AT WM. STARK HOME—

Rev. H. B. Green, of Sperry, Iowa, is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Stark.

WEEK-END GUEST—

Mrs. Oliver Killian is entertaining her cousin, Mrs. A. D. McFadden, of Streator, over the week-end.

M. E. CHOR—

The Methodist choir will meet for rehearsal on Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

FOR OPERETTA REHEARSAL—

John Norton is here to take charge of the rehearsal for the operetta, "The Sorcerer," which the choir of St. Luke's is to give later. The regular choir rehearsal will be held from 7:30 until 8:30 and from 8:30 until 9:30 the operetta will be rehearsed.

TO WAUKESHA—

Mrs. Charles Dement accompanied her daughter, Mrs. Hawley Wilbur, to Waukesha, Tuesday, at the end of the latter's visit here. The trip was made by automobile.

VISIT IN POLO—

Mrs. J. W. Carpenter returned home today from Polo where she has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Paul Anderson.

IN CHICAGO—

Mrs. Benj. Snyder is visiting her sisters in Chicago, Mrs. Sears and Mrs. Lane.

LABOR HEAD CALLS

GARY REPORT "BUNK"

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Chicago, Oct. 16.—The industrial situation at the great steel plants in the Chicago district today was reported better than at any time since the steel workers' strike was called nearly four weeks ago. Many of the mills were said to be running at 50 per cent or more of their usual capacity, while virtually every plant affected by the walk-out was operating on at least a reduced scale.

On the other hand there were statements by labor leaders that the unskilled workers were the only ones returning to their places in appreciable numbers and that so far the effect of the strike had not been diminished.

Strike leaders yesterday at Gary, Ind. where for the first time since federal troops took control an outdoor mass meeting was permitted, made optimistic speeches to approximately 3,000 strikers.

CONFLICTING CLAIMS.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Pittsburgh, Pa., Oct. 16.—Large numbers of workers who went on strike September 22 last, when the nation-wide walkout of steel and iron employees became effective, are returning to work daily in the Pittsburgh district, according to representatives of the companies today.

Union leaders countered the employers' claims today with the statement that strikers were not deserting the ranks and that the strike is an effective at this time as it was during the early days of the walkout.

LICENSED TO WED.

The following marriage licenses have been granted from the office of the county clerk:

Christian Gross of Franklin Grove and Miss Gladys Tennant of Amboy.
Otis W. Young and Mrs. Shirley Zittle, both of Oregon.
Hugo Thurman McDole and Miss Edna O'Kane, both of Sterling.

Argument Tomorrow on Injunction Plea

By Associated Press Leased Wire

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 16.—Acting Chief Justice James H. Cartwright of the State Supreme Court gave assurance today that a decision would be given without delay as to whether "public policy" questions should go on the ballot Nov. 4.

Attorney John Slade representing Edward W. Payne in the fight to keep the propositions of the ballot presented a motion to the court asking that consideration of the case be advanced to the present term. He was joined in the motion by Assistant Attorney General Clarence Board.

"The court fully understands that this case is one of immediate urgency," said Justice Cartwright. "Attention was called to the fact that October 20 is the last day for certification of the questions by the Secretary of State to county clerks.

Mr. Slade filed written suggestions today in support of his motion yesterday that the Payne injunction, later dissolved, be continued in effect. Oral arguments are expected tomorrow. The questions seek a popular vote on the principles of the initiative and referendum, simplification of the method of amending the constitution and enlargement of the powers of cities and other political entities to own and operate public utilities.

CONDITION IS SERIOUS

The condition of Mrs. Charlotte Whipperman, Dixon's centenarian, who fell at her home a few days ago, is reported to be serious. The injury to her hip she received in the fall has confined her to her bed, and because of her extreme age, 101 years, is mending very slowly.

UNPREPARED FOR PEACE?

In 1916 an American newspaper man was shown some copies of a German commercial magazine. He noted at once that instead of a series of articles about the war's immediate effect on business, there were a number of articles whose titles ended with the words, "nach dem Kriege," or "after the war.""Does this mean," he asked the owners of the magazines, "that German editors expect the war will end soon?""Not that," was the answer. "It means that German editors hope to find Germany prepared for peace when peace comes, as she was prepared for war when war befell."The war ended very differently from what the German editors imagined, and conditions "nach dem Kriege" are not what were then portrayed. Yet more than one writer has commented on the fact that Germany, rallying from external defeat and internal upheaval, has really recommenced business with startling aggressiveness. Buenos Aires reports a German engineering firm competing for a contract with British and American firms. London reports German manufacturers again competing for the London market. In September, a ship laden with German glassware and German toys entered New York harbor.Is it possible that German plans
"nach dem Kriege" will be carried out?
Is it really foreshadowed that the future will record that Germany was better prepared for war in 1914, and though defeated was better prepared for peace in 1919? We can only listen and wonder, while precious days of opportunity are born, and the wires tingle with conflict from the near east and the far east, and a final peace has not been signed because not all can be sure whether it is the true peace that should be signed, and industrial distresses held back production—and all the time Germany moves on as a people prepared.SOFT DRINK STORES NOT SUBJECT TO ANY LICENSES—BRUNDAGEThe attorney general has ruled that soft drink parlors cannot be subject to license. He says there is nothing in present laws which will permit it, and the legislature does not meet again until a year from next January. Many cities, including Dixon, had thought to raise their depleted revenues by licensing soft drink parlors. The license has been collected in Dixon for over a year.SERIOUS SHORTAGE OF CENSUS TAKERS NOTEDFreeport, Oct. 16.—Though the time for filing applications for appointment as census enumerators has almost expired there is a surprisingly small number of applicants, especially in the rural districts, and Supervisor of Census W. C. Milner said today he hoped more people would send in their applications within the next day or two. All that is necessary is to send a card to Mr.
Milner at this office in the federal building, and the latter will give due notice of the time of the examination that each enumerator is required to take.

LABOR COMMITTEE TO MEET.

Washington, Oct. 16.—The senate labor committee will meet today to decide whether it will hear any more testimony in the steel strike investigation or close its inquiry and prepare a report. Several committee members are of the opinion that a sufficiently clear insight into the situation has already been gained to warrant drawing up a report.

BREWERS PETITION WILSON.

Washington, Oct. 16.—The United

IN CITY; LOOKS WELLKash Poliski, the Polish heavyweight champion wrestler, who is to meet Floyd Domer of this city in the main bout at this evening's athletic carnival at Moose hall, arrived in Dixon last evening from Plainview, Minn., where he was sent hurriedly Monday to take the place of a wrestler who had been taken ill, and is all ready for his go with the local man this evening. At Plainview Poliski threw Jack Pesak in two straight falls, the first in 18 minutes and the second going an hour and a half. The Pole's manager, "Kid" Cutler, who is grooming him for the championship, will arrive from Chicago early this evening to attend the match.The sale of seats for tonight's show, which will include several good preliminary bouts and an exhibition of strength by Young Scotty, has been large and a packed house is assured.

RETURNED OPEN VERDICT.

The coroner's jury which investigated the mysterious death of Elias H.
Purcell, former Sterling musician, returned an open verdict yesterday, three of the members giving it as their opinion that Purcell had suicided and three holding he had been murdered. In their verdict they held that death was due to cardiac and respiratory failure due to nicotine poisoning, but stated from the evidence presented they were unable to determine how or in what manner or by whom said nicotine was ingested.

Smith, George Foley and William H.
Eaglin, all of Sterling, striking employees of the Rock Falls paper mill, have been held to the Whiteside county grand jury under bonds of $1,500 each, charged with conspiracy, following their arrest for assaulting workmen entering the mill to work. They were unable to furnish bonds and are now in the Whiteside county jail at Morrison.LET CONTRACT FOR

FOR RADIO CONTROL

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Washington, Oct. 16.—A new policy for control and development of radio communication was laid before congress by Secretary Daniels. It provides for maintenance of both naval and private stations, with the latter under control of a national radio commission, and proposes to open existing or new stations to general public correspondence at rates to be fixed by the navy department and congress. General public trans-oceanic correspondence through naval stations would not be permitted, however, except during temporary suspension of private service.

MAYNARD'S RECORD
FLIGHT IS STOPPED

yesterday he broke all records for flights from San Francisco to Sidney, Neb., his own record. He announced he expected to spend the night at Chicago. Through snow storms yesterday the "Flying Parson" made 136 in fifty-six minutes and then dashed an additional 92 miles through the skies in thirty-three minutes.

Two More Are Killed

The death toll in the race today stood at seven, leaving thirty-nine pilots in the contest. Lieut. French Kirby, pilot and Lieut. Stanley C. Miller, observer, were killed yesterday when their airplane crashed at Castle Rock, Utah.

Of those remaining in the race six have completed half their trip by landing at the Mineola field and nine west-bound fliers have reached San Francisco. Twenty-four others still are on the first leg of their flight, scattered at various control stations across the country.

Flying in Snow Storm

Lieut. B. W. Maynard, the "Flying Parson," leader in the army transcontinental air derby, resumed his eastward flight toward Mineola, N. Y., from the control station at Sidney, Neb., at 7:15 a. m. (Mountain Time) today. He arrived there at 5:45 p. m. yesterday and spent the night.

Snow was falling when Lieut. Maynard "hopped off." Before leaving he reported he had encountered four snow storms yesterday between Battle Mountain, Nev., and Sidney, but that he managed to fly around each one of them. His time from Cheyenne, Wyo., to Sidney, reported last night as 33 minutes today was placed at 40 minutes by the official starter at the Sidney air station. The distance from Cheyenne to Sidney is 93 miles.

SMITH DEFINITELY OUT

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Washington, Oct. 16.—Capt. Lowell H. Smith, leader of the west bound return flight in the transcontinental air derby, is definitely out of the contest and will return to his post by rail. It was stated today at Air Service headquarters here, that his machine was destroyed accidentally by fire last night after he had made a safe landing at the Buffalo control station, but the ruling made was that inasmuch as the flight was to test reliability of planes primarily, Capt. Smith could not be permitted to continue his flight to San Francisco in another ship.

TWO LEFT SALT LAKE

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Salt Lake City, Oct. 16.—The eastward flight of eight airplanes in the transcontinental derby, was resumed from here and nearby control stations today, all having left their stations by 9:30 o'clock. From Salduro, Lieut. S. W. Torney, No. 30, departed at 7:01 and Lieut. Fred Nelson, No. 6, departed at 7:54.

FIRE AT ASSEMBLY GROUND

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Minneapolis, Minn., Oct. 16.—Fire starting in a summer home destroyed seventy cottages at the Methodist Assembly Grounds, Groveland, Lake Minnetonka, early this morning. Four persons, two of them children, seriously burned in escaping from their homes were brought to Minneapolis hospitals. One hundred persons, many only partially clad, were brought here and housed in hotels.

GROSS-TENNANT—

The marriage of Miss Gladys Tennant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Tennant, of Amboy, and Christian Gross, substantial farmer of Franklin Grove, took place last evening at 7:30 o'clock in the Congregational parsonage at Amboy. Rev. Vinton Lee, the pastor, read the service in the presence of a small company of relatives and friends. Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Small, brother-in-law and sister of the bride, and Mrs. Marie Cole, who served as matron of honor, attended the couple. Mrs. Boesmer, of Chicago, was also present. The bride wore her traveling suit of blue cloth. Her hat was a picture hat in the same shade. A reception will be held for Mr. and Mrs. Gross upon their return from their honeymoon trip, to be spent in the West.

GUESTS FROM DEKALB—

Mrs. S. J. Myers and daughter are here from DeKalb, guests of Mrs. J. F. Myers.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Van Pelt, of Chicago, are visiting at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Morgan.

SINN FEINERS HELD MEET
DESPITE BRITAIN'S ORDERS

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Dublin, Oct. 16.—Defying the order of the government and the commander-in-chief in Ireland, the twelfth annual convention of the Sinn Fein was held at midnight in the Mansion house. It lasted three hours. Notwithstanding all precautions taken to prevent the meeting the complete order of business was carried through.

NO TRACE OF BOY.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Hampton, N. J., Oct. 16.—After a week's search and the investigation of a score of supposed clues, the mystery surrounding the disappearance from his home here last Wednesday, of 3-year-old Billy Dansey apparently was no nearer solution today than the day he disappeared.

Present Resolution
Giving Labor Right
to Union Bargaining

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Washington, Oct. 16.—A declaration of "the right of wage earners" to "bargain collectively" and to "be represented by representatives of their choosing" was presented to the National Industrial committee today by Thomas L. Chadbourne, chairman of the committee of 15. It was expected to cause a strenuous fight in conference.

The declaration was approved by all of the public and labor delegates on the committee, but was strongly opposed by a majority of the representatives of capital. It was drafted at a four hour session of the committee today and presented when the conference convened at 2:30 p. m.

May Reach Vote on Shantung Amendment

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Washington, Oct. 16.—Debate on the Shantung amendment to the peace treaty was resumed in the senate today with leaders hopeful that a final vote on it would be had before adjournment. Although contending that the vote would be close, supporters of the proposal generally conceded that it would be defeated.

At the outset of the debate Senator Kellogg, republican, of Minnesota, announced his opposition to the amendment, declaring it would be inconsistent for the United States to presume to dictate in the Far East now, after remaining silent while Germany and other nations had seized territory there in years past.

The Shantung settlement was condemned as immoral by the Minnesota senator who said he would support a reservation by which the United States would decline to be a party to the transaction.

STRIKE OF SEVEN MEN
TIED UP THIS RAILROAD

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Rock Island, Ill., Oct. 16.—A strike staged by seven men completely tied up a railroad system having its terminal at Rock Island today.

The walkout occurred at Matherville, Ill., where 11 men are employed in operating the power plant which supplies the power for the Rock Island Southern Railway, an electric line, which operates between here and Galesburg, via Monmouth. The strike was the result of holding back of one week's pay from the entire force of employees. Company officials announced today that the electric cars would be running again tomorrow.

NO SUGAR AGREEMENT

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Washington, Oct. 16.—Because of opposition of representatives of the Sugar Equalization Board to the elimination of clauses providing for the licensing of dealers in sugar, the senate agriculture committee was unable today to reach an agreement on legislation designed to relieve the present sugar situation.

Mr. Haley, of Phalen's Millinery House, Chicago, was in town Wednesday.

Another Milkman's
Memory is Indistinct

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Chicago, Oct. 16.—H. C. Benhart of Racine, Ill., a director of the Milk Producers' Association testified today at the trial of eight officials of the organization charged with conspiring to arbitrarily fix the price of milk.

Assistant States Attorney Walker attempted to have the witness identify resolutions adopted by the organization at a meeting held in Chicago Sept. 21, 1917 at which the price of milk in the Chicago district was fixed at $3.42 a hundred pounds.

The memory of the witness appeared indistinct and he was unable to state whether the resolutions had been passed.

Ludendorff Refuses to Answer Questions

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Berlin, Wednesday, Oct. 15.—General Ludendorff is reported to have refused to appear before the parliamentary commission investigating the responsibility of German leaders for the war which will begin sessions early next week. Carl Kautsky will address the commission on the results of his investigation of pre-war diplomatic documents and suggest the names of individuals to be subpoenaed.

The judicial status of the commission and the extent of its powers to enforce attendance by witnesses is still uncertain and it is the opinion in some quarters that Gen. Ludendorff cannot be compelled to submit to examination.

Body May Be That of Missing Balloonist

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Detroit, Mich., Oct. 16.—Commanders of the Eagle boats searching Lake Huron for traces of two balloonists, Capt. Dammann and Observer Verheyden, whose wrecked balloon was picked up near Cove Lake, Oct. 4, were today awaiting the arrival at Cape Hurd of an official of the National championship race, held two weeks ago, who may be able to identify a body picked up yesterday by the Eagle 44, as that of one of the missing aeronauts.

The body was found near Baptist Island which lies a few miles off Cape Hurd.

GOMPERS BETTER TODAY

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Washington, Oct. 16.—Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, who is suffering from nervous exhaustion, was reported somewhat improved today, but his physician has ordered him to remain in bed. Last night Mr. Gompers' temperature rose to 100.8 degrees but it had receded this morning to 98.4.

GERMANY WILL HELP.
By Associated Press Leased Wire
Berlin, Tuesday, Oct. 14.—The Kruecz Zeitungs learns from "well informed quarters" the government will in all probability agree to join in the blockade of Soviet Russia proposed by the entente powers. It is said the government will lay down certain conditions incident to its participation and "will primarily consider Germany's foreign political interests when reaching a decision as to its final attitude."

JEWISH CONDITION WORSE THAN BEFORE WAR

JUDGE HARRY FISHER, FORMERLY A CITIZEN OF BUFFETED LAND, TELLS OF UNBELIEVABLE WAY IN WHICH JEWS ARE TREATED IN EUROPE TODAY

Great Need of Separate Relief Fund for Race Who Gave Its Money and Men as Freely as Any Other in Great Struggle is Outlined

Judge Harry Fisher of Chicago inspired his hearers at the meeting of the Lee county Jewish Relief Drive committee so thoroughly last week that the Telegraph gladly presents his address to its readers that they may more thoroughly understand the awfulness of conditions the coming drive will relieve. Judge Fisher's address was:

I believe that this particular drive that you are about to put on and undertake, ought to be understood a little more than it is understood by the American people, not only insofar as the means of giving relief to the Jews who suffer, because I am satisfied that the Americans care little, what the belief of the particular individual is, if he is suffering, and American generosity can alleviate that suffering. America will respond and respond generously. What needs to be explained is the need for a separate Jewish Relief Fund. That many people do not understand, and it is difficult for the American mind to thoroughly grasp the situation which makes that separate relief necessary, knowing how we here in America can live together in a friendly spirit without any particular discrimination against any particular class, it is difficult how to conceive in any land, one class should be singled out, discriminated against socially, politically, and even discriminated against to the extent of depriving them of such food as can be found in the particular country.

Yet, that is precisely the condition that prevails, and that is what we would like to have Americans understand, because so different is the condition over there that it became necessary to properly safeguard the political rights of this minority to provide in the treaty just promulgated that in these lands, the minorities shall have a separate, autonomous existence, because without that they felt that they could not possibly be politically protected.

I know, hard as you are going to try, you are not going to be able to picture to yourselves a condition of affairs in any land, where a group is singled out, and given a single, political, autonomous existence, given that simply out of a humanitarian consideration, simply to protect them to the extent that they may be able to live at all. There are approximately forty million Jews in the world, and more than half of that number live along the western border of what used to be Russia before the war, and now is Lithuania, Poland and Ukraine, and just across the border in Galicia which was formerly a part of the Austro-Hungarian government, three million are in America, and four million are spread throughout the world. The condition that forced something like seven millions of our people to live along the western border of old Russia, was not a condition of their own making. They had lived in Russia since the tenth century, and yet during all that time have never enjoyed citizenship, they have been denied at all times the benefit of citizenship. Ever since the tenth century there has been in force in all these lands, whether they were in Russian domains, or under Lithuanian, Polish or Ukrainian governments, laws discriminating against the Jews in every activity of life. He has been deprived of the right to own and till the soil. He has been deprived of the right to send his children to the schools, only five per cent were permitted to enter the higher schools of education. He was even deprived of the right to maintain his own schools, and finally during the last century while all of these lands belonged to Russia has been prohibited from living in any part of the country except that portion of it which has been known as the Pale of Civilization, that portion running along the western border. And some of us suspect that that was the result of a deliberate plan eventually to annihilate the Jews of Russia.

For over fifty years Russia had been expecting a war with the Central Powers. She knew that some day the hordes would come from the West and attempt to overrun it, and instead of building fortifications on the western border she built Jewish families and Jewish cities and Jewish villages, and all along that border you found nothing but Jewish habitations. They were always miserably poor barely eking out a living and that they could not do in the ordinary way, so many of them had to bribe their officials in order to live at all, and in places where under the law they were supposed to have the right to live, they were even deprived of the right to own the soil, of the right to have private investments, and all they could accumulate was just enough to live from time to time, and in the last twenty-five years just enough to enable their families to escape from Russia and to carry them over to America, so that perhaps two and one-half millions of our people came to America since '93. But they were not even permitted to leave that country, and so they had to escape. I left my home when I was twelve years old, we had to leave at twelve o'clock at night, hidden in large caravans driving at night, and lay over at some place during the day and when night came we would again take up our journey, until we would again take up our journey, until we finally got to the border, and then on foot across the border into Germany, and from there pursue our journey to America.

Under these conditions they lived and suffered until the war broke out, and just what we had expected, just what we have a right to feel was deliberately planned and done. When the hordes came from the West, the first part of Russia that was struck was The Pale of Settlement, and some of these cities suffered terribly, being taken and retaken as many as a dozen times. Some of these towns have been entirely devastated. My own city which had something like sixty thousand Jews when I left twenty-five years ago has been utterly demolished, and not a single house of it is left.

In the early part of the war, men, women and children were driven from the towns and cities, they were driven through the prairies and forests of Russia, and thousands and hundreds of thousands have never returned to their homes. And while their boys, while their husbands and fathers were serving under the flag of the Romanoffs, their wives and children and mothers were driven from their homes, never to return. Hundreds of thousands of them went mad with suffering even in those days, and when the cry came to us from across the sea, we did what little we could as Jews, and sent as much money as was possible to send over there in those days. How much good we did we do not know, but before long America entered the war, and then we felt that our duty was primarily to America, and while we did not forget our brethren across the sea, we could not devote ourselves to them as we should have liked to, we felt that now the time had come when the Jews would be given the golden opportunity of showing that in this land where they are received on the basis of equality, in this golden land, where the doors of opportunity were thrown open to us the same as to all others, we would now show how much we appreciated, and how loyal we could be to her institutions. Always dreaming, always hoping, that when America and her Allies should finally succeed, when the ideal for which we fought should finally come out victorious, that then there would be an end to the Jewish question even over there, then there would be an end to all these persecutions, and that there then would not be need for a separate Jewish relief anywhere. We felt that at least in those parts of Europe where new nationalities were established, where the peoples gained their liberty by reason of the sacrifice that America and the Allies would make, that there would no longer remain those discriminations, those inhuman practices which reduced the Jews to starvation, to poverty and want. And did we not have a right to hope that the Democracy we were fighting for was going to bring about a new day. Did we not have a perfect right to dream that the persecutions of the Jews in Eastern Europe would come to an end by reason not only of the sacrifice of America and her Allies, but by the contributions the Jew himself has made toward this victory.

In every land our boys served and served splendidly, whether it was in England, France, Italy, Belgium or America, we gave our full quota of men, money and effort. Not that we ask any credit for it, quite on the contrary, we felt that it would be a golden opportunity to show that the Jew was would be loyal to the land that gave him protection. But we did make that contribution, and we felt that we were making it for an ideal, an American ideal, a human ideal, an ideal based upon justice and humanity. We felt that in all of those lands we were going to be benefitted as a result of the sacrifices. Our boys went into the trenches, just as the boys of the other religious faiths, and there they commingled, and there they lived, there they fought and there they died together. They asked no questions. It did not matter to the Jewish lad that the boy on his right was a Catholic, a Jew or a Protestant, and it did not matter to the Catholic or the Protestant that the boy on his left was a Jew, together they went over the top, and they went with their arms to catch the Jew, and didn't the Jewish boy carry on his back the wounded Catholic or Protestant boy, without regard to his own safety. And who thought after mingling as they did over the entire battlefield, who thought in those days, who thought that there would yet remain a Jewish question in particular in lands that benefitted much more than America has by this sacrifice.

Who thought that after this New Era the war was to bring to us, that there would be persecutions anywhere on the face of the world, by those who allied themselves with America and the other democracies. And when the war finally came to an end, when the Armistice was signed, didn't we all in every city and hamlet rejoice, didn't we all join our voices in thanksgiving and praise, didn't we all rejoice together, and who could have differentiated between the Jew and the non-Jew, when the thanks-giving went out for the success of the arms of the Allies and America.

And yet before the roar of the cannon fully died out, before the smoke of battle fully vanished there came a call to us from across the sea such as in all our sufferings we have not heard. The Jew has been accustomed to persecution for half a century, and yet the terrible conditions that now prevail, the horrors that came to our view since the Armistice was signed were such that even the Jew has not heard of before. Eleven days after the Armistice was signed, on the 22nd day of November, in city of Lemberg there was a pogrom against the Jews where more than six hundred innocent men, women and children lost their lives, and no one knows what number were maimed and injured. The entire Jewish district has been virtually wiped out. Whatever they possessed were robbed of, and to this very day, what is left of them lives in fear and lives a life of torture, not knowing what the next day will bring.

In the city of Pinsk, thirty-four men were meeting for the purpose of distributing food that came from America and while they were in session they were surrounded by officers and uniformed men and led to the market place without knowing the whys or wherefores and there shot in cold blood. Similar occurrences in Vilna, and many other parts of Poland, and in the Ukraine where they have no established government. We are told that the persecutions of the Jews have reached such a point that over sixty thousand have lost their lives since the Armistice has been signed, and that my friends, for no other reason than that they were Jews.

Oh! if our suffering was the common suffering of all, if we were suffering only because the war left them in such a condition that there is no food or shelter to be had, we would not ask for any separate relief for the Jews. If whatever help that could come from common sources would be assured to him and he would be permitted to enjoy that there would be no need for this drive. But we know that that is impossible. We know that we cannot hope to have any help even if help should come to the others. In Roumania they would not even sell him bread if he wanted to buy it, and out of a million Jews who were in Roumania before the war, in Roumania and that part of Bessarabia that is now a part of it, we are told that less than half remain. The stories that have come to us of suffering and agony are beyond description. Men that in the past were merchants, bankers, lawyers, physicians, men of standing, men that gave in the past and gave generously to all the needy are today required to stand in line at the soup kitchens, they stand there by the thousands, they stand there from three o'clock in the morning when it is opened, to be sure, that when it is finally closed at six o'clock at night, that they will receive their share and we are told that thousands do not receive their allowance, and will continue to stand in line until next morning when the kitchen is opened again. And these men and women in the bread line are men and women of affairs who in the past took part in alleviating the wants of others.

Do you know what they get in these soup kitchens? Just a little warm water, eight pounds of meat for every thousand and persons is all we could afford, because that is all the fifty million dollars we sent last year could buy, for three millions of people are absolutely dependent upon the charity of America for their livelihood. We do not ask for comforts for them, we do not ask for homes for them such as we here enjoy, we do not ask for clothing such as we are accustomed to wear, we ask for no luxuries or comforts, all we ask is enough to buy bread to save lives. Even if their suffering was the common suffering of all the people, we feel that America would and should respond, but here is a people that cannot be helped at all unless it is helped by America. There is not a place on the face of the earth that they can turn to for aid. They themselves cannot possibly get aid in their own land.

In the city of Warsaw we are told, there are today two hundred thousand fatherless and motherless babies, Jewish babies, a like number in the city of Odessa, and they tell us that children of five or six years of age are unable to stand on their limbs, because of want of nourishment; children who before the war were able to speak have lost the power of speech; they only have clothes enough to cover up their bare nakedness. In the hospitals they haven't had medicines for years, there is no such thing as an anesthetic. We are told that hospitals that were built in the past to accommodate one hundred persons now accommodate eight hundred; they all lie on the bare floors, no beds, no sheets, and there they lie until death, the only thing that can relieve them finally makes an end to their suffering. Children are not taken into the hospitals until their bodies show signs of swelling, because until they die there is no room for them.

And those millions of people live in that condition, they live in continual fear that perhaps the next day without reason, without cause, a band of hooligans may sweep down on them and take their lives. The fathers and mothers care little for themselves, to them the grave would be a relief, but the li-live, they want help from us, and we want to help them. We feel you have encouraged us to go to the American people and ask them to help us in this undertaking. Because, my friends, not only do we want your money to help save those lives, but we want it for another reason which may mean even more than that. We feel that if the American people would come to the aid of these suffering Jews in Poland and Galicia, Roumania and the Ukraine, that the moral effect of it will be such that those persecutors over there will understand that America protests against these inhuman atrocities, against these wild persecutions.

These little countries, and new countries over there, little or big, are and will be dependent upon America for years to come, and I feel that America will not aid any land that starts out its new life with its hands reeking in the blood of innocent men, women and children. The only way they can be made to understand, the only way America can protest is by showing that in the present crisis, the sympathy of the American people is with the Jews. We do not ask for anything from any land that we do not ask for the others who live there, all we ask for is a right to life, liberty and the peaceful pursuit of honorable occupations. Nothing more do we ask, and if they give that to us in those lands, our people there will be just as loyal and just as true to their institutions, as I believe the Jews in America and the Jews in England have proven that they are loyal to the institutions of that land that gives them those opportunities.

But at this time my friends, it is a question of life and a question of getting bread to save life, and also a moral force that may in some measure react upon those who so blindly persecute innocent and unoffending people. We ask for money to buy life, we ask for money for its moral value, and we ask for your money above all, that by your generosity, your goodness and your understanding of the meaning of justice and humanity you will set an example, so that eventually even the people in those dark lands may follow you and establish a real new era, an era based upon human principles.

So far the new day to the Jew over there has meant a new day of torture

Peace brought no peace to the Jew. Liberation of Poland. Liberation of Roumania, and of all the other small lands over there, did not mean the liberation of the Jews. Oh no, it meant new tortures, new persecutions, new robberies, new pillages and new murders. But we still have hope, we still have hope that some day they will see the light, and above all our hopes lies in America. It was America that first spoke out against political persecutions. It was the American representative in Paris that insisted on writing in the Treaty that the minorities of Europe should be guaranteed the right of true life, liberty and happiness, and it is America we hope will set the human example which some day will make her understanding of justice and right the understanding of the whole world.

Wages Increase as Production Shrinks

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Chicago, Oct. 15.—Despite wage increase of 123 per cent since 1914 for stock yards laborers, the production per man has fallen off 25 per cent, attorneys for the packers stated in their final arguments yesterday in the stock yards wage arbitration before Federal Judge Alschuler.

The attorneys denounced acts of sabotage, which they declared, had brought about a decrease of production at the stock yards, and assailed radical leaders.

STRIKE WITHIN A STRIKE.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Chicago, Oct. 15.—A strike within a strike resulted when automobile-owning steel-strikers who have been driving pickets to and from South Chicago stevedocks for $8 a day, working from thirteen to fifteen hours a day, yesterday demanded an 8-hour day with $10 pay.

Says Moral Tone of People Has Reaction

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Baltimore, Md., Oct. 15.—The moral tone of the people of all the people which was distinctly elevated during the war, has suffered a reaction, declared former President William Howard Taft in his address as president of the Unitarian General Conference here today, "and we are back again in the old regime of the 'old times' where progress to better things seems as slow as it was before the war."

We should not be discouraged, however, Mr. Taft said. "This reaction will be succeeded again by an onward and upward movement, and we shall find the world better because of its sacrifices and the lessons they taught."

EPISCOPALIANS PLAN TO RAISE BIG FUND 500N
By Associated Press Leased Wire
Detroit, Mich., Oct. 15.—Plans for the nation-wide campaign for funds occupied the general convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church today.

The exact sum aimed at in the campaign has not been made known and depends entirely upon the completion of a survey of the church's needs and opportunities now being made.

TO REMOVE RESTRICTIONS.
By Associated Press Leased Wire
St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 15.—Julius H. Barnes, director of the United States Grain corporation, in speaking today before the Grain Dealers National Association, predicted that the export and import restrictions on wheat would be removed within a short time and advised the trade to prepare for such a change.

TOBACCO HABIT DANGEROUS

SAYS Doctor Connor, formerly of Johns Hopkins hospital. Thousands of men suffering from fatal diseases would be in perfect health today were it not for the deadly drug Nicotine. Stop the habit now before it's too late. It's a simple process to rid yourself of the tobacco habit in any form. Just go to any up-to-date drug store and get some Nicotol tablets; take them as directed and lo, the pernicious habit quickly vanishes. Druggists refund the money if they fail. Be sure to read the large and interesting announcement by Doctor Connor soon to appear in this paper. It tells of the danger of nicotine poisoning and how to avoid it. In the meantime try Nicotol tablets; you will be surprised at the result.

Soldiers Made Short Work of I. W. W. Hole

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Chicago, Oct. 15.—An I. W. W. platoon headquarters recently opened in South Chicago today bore a placard "stay away from South Chicago," and was empty of the literature it had housed. Two hundred men, including a number of discharged soldiers, last night marched to the hall, drove out the secretary and pitched the books and pamphlets into the street where gas line was poured on them and then set afire.

DANZIG TAKES PROPERTY.

Corns Come Off Like Banana Peel

"Gets-It" Leaves Toe Smooth As Your Palm. Never Fails.

Ever feel of a banana skin? Well, that's the way "Gets-It" feels on any corn or callus. It's a skin. Nothing else in the world will do it

"2 Drops of 'Gets-It,' Good-bye Corns." but "Gets-It" because of the new secret principle in the "Gets-It" formula. "Gets-It" does away forever with "contraction," "swampy" plasters, ointments that rub off, blood-letting knives, and seissors that snip into the "quick." "Gets-It" cures pain. It takes but a second or two to use "Gets-It." There's no fussing or trouble. It dries immediately. You put your stocking right back on again. Your corn will come off painlessly in one complete piece. That's common-sense. It never fails. "Gets-It" the only sure, guaranteed, money-back corn-remover, costs but a trifle at any drug store. Reduce Great Lakes to a Minor Station

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Chicago, Oct. 15.—A report published here today declares that the Great Lakes naval training station, which during the war became the largest institution of its kind in the country, will be reduced in size and revert to its pre-war status as a station of minor importance, if the recommendation of Secretary Daniels and the navy department are put into effect.

According to the report Secretary Daniels recently addressed a letter to the Mayor of North Chicago, Ill., stating that much of the land now occupied by the naval training station will be returned to its original owners and $10,000,000 worth of buildings will be wrecked in accordance with the navy department's policy of retrenchment.

Early Strength in Corn Market is Lost

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Chicago, Oct. 16.—Although rainy weather gave a little fresh strength to the corn market today, the effect was soon counterbalanced. The official forecast of clear skies and lower temperatures promised to restore conditions favorable for the crop movement. Besides, bearish sentiment was emphasized by lower quotations on hogs. Opening corn prices, which ranged from 1/4c off to 1/4c advance, with December 1.22 1/4 to 1.22 1/4 and May 1.21 1/4 to 1.21 1/4 were followed by a slight gain all around and then a general sag.

Oats were governed by the action of corn, and kept within narrow limits. After opening unchanged to 1/4c higher, including December at 70 3/4 to 70 3/4, the market underwent a little setback. Provisions scored an upturn despite weakness in value of hogs and corn. The strength shown was ascribed to opinions that the semi-monthly report on warehouse stocks appeared bullish. Later, the market rallied owing to covering by shorts and to lightness of rural offerings. The close was firm, 1/4c to 1/2c net higher, with December 1.22 1/4 to 1.22 1/4 and May 1.21 1/4.

ARE OFF NIGHT LIFE

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Paris, Wednesday, Oct. 16.—The first attempt to revive the old night life of Paris is generally regarded here as a distinct failure. A few late suppers were served last night at Montmartre establishments between midnight and 1 o'clock in the morning, but there was scarcely enough patronage to pay for the trouble. Business also was light in boulevard establishments which during the war closed at an early hour.

It is the opinion of residents here that night resorts in future must look to the foreigner for patronage.
